

Commissioner Sandra K. Dunahoo

Sandra K Dunahoo currently serves as Commissioner for the Department for Local Government in the Office of Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin.

Commissioner Dunahoo is a government relations veteran with experience in hundreds of millions of dollars in projects that involved the coordination of the public and private sector, both in Kentucky and abroad.

Prior to her appointment to the Kentucky Department for Local Government, Commissioner Dunahoo was Project Development Specialist and Funding Consultant for Nesbitt Engineering, Inc, overseeing the development of many high profile projects in Kentucky and successfully reviving and completing many dormant projects that previously failed.

Commissioner Dunahoo served more than a dozen years as marketing manager for Kenvirons Inc. and Elrod Dunson Consulting Engineers. She has also served as a project manager and local government liaison for Kentucky's 5th Congressional District.